

Section 25 Police Act 1996

- (1) The chief officer of police of a police force may provide, at the request of any person, special police services at any premises or in any locality in the police area for which the force is maintained, subject to the payment to the police authority of charges on such scales as may be determined by that authority.
- (2) (2) In the application of this section to the metropolitan police force, for the reference in subsection(1) to the police authority there shall be substituted a reference to the Receiver for the Metropolitan Police District.
